- a) Dealer is hereby granted participation in QAP based on dealer's QAP Application, the current qualification requirements set forth in the NMEDA Guidelines, and the QAP Rules. Dealer may hold itself out to the public as "accredited" under QAP after notification from NMEDA that they have passed their initial (accreditation) audit.
- b) Dealer's continued participation and accreditation will be contingent upon continued compliance with this Agreement, the NMEDA Guidelines, the Bylaws, and the QAP Rules.
- c) Dealer agrees that its facility and personnel will be inspected and audited by a third-party Audit Firm selected by NMEDA at Dealer's sole expense and to the satisfaction of NMEDA. These third-party audits are mandatory to retain accreditation and membership status in good standing.
- d) Dealer agrees that all information provided to NMEDA, its agents, or the Audit Firm, or Audit Firm representative for purposes of obtaining or maintaining QAP labels shall be complete and accurate representations.

- f) Dealer agrees that QAP labels obtained and authorized under QAP will be placed only on qualified vehicles (i.e.: those modified in accordance with the NMEDA Guidelines and Manufacturer's Instructions).
- g) Dealer agrees that if its facility is found to be non-compliant with this Agreement, the NMEDA Guidelines and/or the QAP Rules, by the Audit Firm and NMEDA, NMEDA has the authority to direct the Audit Firm to re-audit the dealer's facility at the dealer's expense. The cost of re-audit will be based upon the Audit Firm's current published rate schedule, plus travel and expenses.

- i) Dealers found to be non-compliant with the NMEDA Guidelines and/or the QAP Rules after re-audit will lose their QAP accreditation.
